OUR STORY

An'trei emerged from the legacy of a seasoned artisan with over four decades of mastery in crafting thermo-pressed products.

We were intrigued at the products that this company manufactured as well as the production process, and acquired the company in April 2023.

The allure of the products and the enchantment woven into the clients' visions ignited an eagerness within us, propelling us towards this new adventure.

As we embarked on this journey, we sourced a team with the finest skills to master the craft and bring our clients' creations to life. Our team comprises of professionals in the areas of technology, finance, quality, and artistry, weaving a tapestry of expertise to guide our path ahead.

ABOUT OUR PRODUCTS

An'trei is a proudly South African supplier specializing in producing high-end thermo-pressed products for the functional art, tourism, hospitality and catering industries. These products include trays, placemats, dining and kitchen boards, coasters and pot stands as well as some stationery products.

Only the finest material is sought to weave together these products, ensuring not only their aesthetic grace but also their enduring strength, preserving their splendor through the ages.

Within the heart of An'trei beats a passion for creation, infusing each creation with the joy and love that birthed it. By combining the essence of our clients' symbols and visions into our creations, we invoke bespoke wonders that sing of their essence.

Although our products are thermo-pressed, these are handcrafted by our team. Each piece of material is carefully shaped by hand, layered with care, and put together with magic before being placed in our heat presses.

Resilient and unyielding, our creations are scratch resistant and stand firm against temperatures of up to 120°C, a testament to their endurance. Our trays are dishwasher safe, while the rest of our creations simply beckon for a gentle wipe with a damp cloth.

Embracing a visage of smooth elegance, our products don a laminate surface, while the hardboard products are graced with a regal cork backing. The trays, adorned with a pristine white finish, stand as a testament to our commitment to excellence.

ABOUT THE AN'TREI COLLECTION

Our in-house collection began with the enchanting Peonies Collection, a heartfelt tribute crafted by Shayé to celebrate the enduring legacies of her mother, Josephine, and grandmother, Anna. These extraordinary women sprinkle the virtues of courage and kindness into her life, standing steadfastly by her side through the magical tapestry of life.

Other designs gracefully joined the collection, each created with a contemporary vision and timeless elegance in mind, adding a touch of wonder and whimsy to our offerings.

Products from the An'trei Collection are elegantly packaged, ensuring that they are not only the perfect gift, but also ready to dazzle on product shelves.
